	Attention!

Beginning in the 2025-26 school year, the end of each academic quarter will now be a full day of school, rather than the half day previously scheduled. In addition, due to the Jewish holiday calendar for the upcoming year, we have added asynchronous learning days. On these days, students will be expected to complete teacher-prepared assignments independently and submit them by the end of the day. It is important that each of these asynchronous days be valid school days to meet the minimum state requirement for days in session. We are entrusting that our families will take the expectations of asynchronous days seriously so that we can continue to offer this flexibility around Jewish holidays in the future.
